

Kadambari Varshney

Occupational Therapist

Kadambari is having experience of 8 years in working with children with different abilities. She has worked in different types of setup like clinic based, school based and home intervention. She is having experience of conducting individual as well as group sessions. She completed her graduation from IPH University in Occupational Therapy with additional certification courses in sensory integration and handwriting without tears. She has also conducted in-house workshops related to special needs for parents as well as staff.