Experience – 1 Year

Ms. Sonal Rathore is a Special Educator and has completed her graduation with Sociology and B.Ed in specialization of Mental Retardation.

Recognized as an accomplished educationalist with a comprehensive blend of professional and academic experience, she is a consummate academician who is passionate about the potential and impact of early education on a child's mind. She is a Special Educator devoted to education and learning, with experience teaching at the Primary and Mid School levels. She is able to deal with students with special needs (Autism, ADHD, ADD, Cerebral Palsy, Down syndrome and Learning differences).

Her strength lies in commitment towards helping young students develop and realize their full potential, not only in studies but also personally and socially. She is dedicated to the school programs and outreach events that help promote learning and support the student community.

As a teacher, her philosophy is to respect and appreciate each child's unique learning style and personality, and to help them accept and treat others in a good way. She believes her role as the teacher is to conduct various learning activities and provide opportunities to students that will aid in their development. This will also build in them the ability and desire to become lifelong learners. Her aim is to engage all students in active learning through the whole group, small group, and center-based learning experiences. She strives to bring enthusiasm and creativity in the students to develop a love for learning.
