

Ishita Singh

Special Educator

Education- B.A (Hons.) Psychology, Master's in Counselling Psychology and B.Ed Special Education (Learning Disability)

Experience- 8 months

Areas of Interest- Experienced in dealing children with Autism, Down Syndrome and Learning Disability.

Ms. Ishita Singh has been working in the field of special education for around 1 year and has experience in assessment, developing Individualized Educational Plan (IEP), developing resources and parent's counselling. She has been a part of many groups play activities and circle time. She has done a training programme in counselling adults with anxiety, depression and job-related issues through mindfulness activities.