

Sakshi Yaduvanshi

Special Educator

Experience: 4 years.

Trained in: hearing impairments, sign language and practicing language

Ms. Sakshi has been working in this field of special education for more than 4 years. She's experienced in dealing children with hearing impaired & autism spectrum disorder. She's proficient in developing language and autism & their plans for children with hearing impaired.

She has experience of training parents and guiding them in the areas of language development.