

Name: Aditi Khanna

Designation: Special Educator

Education: B.Ed. Special Education (Learning Disability), BA (H) Political Science, CTET qualified (both paper 1 and 2)

Experience: 10 years

Areas of Interest: Experienced in dealing children with Autism, Down's syndrome, Cerebral Palsy, Attention Deficit Hyperactive Disorder, Global Developmental Delay, Learning Difficulty and Mental Retardation

Testimonial: I have been an active member of rehabilitation field from past many years and have expertise when it comes to developing Individualized Educational Programs (IEP), Progress Performance Reports, modified handouts, worksheets and question papers in accordance to level and difficulty of the child. I have also worked and helped children with reading and writing difficulties by applying remedial strategies to cater their unique learning needs. I have been a part of organizing training workshops for interns and have been guiding them to work with CWSN especially covering pre-writing skills , pre-mathematical and mathematical skills, phonic program training, reading and writing skills & designing IEP's for children with unique learning needs.